The Series B Preferred Holders reserve all rights to designate additional items for inclusion in the record or restate or modify issues presented on appeal. For items designated, the designation includes all documents referenced with the particular document number including, without limitation, all statements, appendices, exhibits, supplements, attachments, declarations, and/or related affidavits.

Statement of Issues on Appeal

The Series B Preferred Holders respectfully state the following issues for the appeal:

- 1) The Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the “Committee”), pursuant to the Motion of the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (I) for Authority to File a Class Claim Asserting Non-Contract Claims on Behalf of Account Holders or (II) to Appoint a Third-Party Fiduciary to Assert a Class Claim on Behalf of Account Holders [Dkt. No. 2399] (the “Motion”), sought approval from the Bankruptcy Court to file a class proof of claim on behalf of certain unsecured creditors. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in permitting the Committee to file a class proof of claim even though the Committee cannot act on behalf of individual creditors and even though the Committee is not and cannot be a class member?
- 2) When exercising discretion to allow the filing of a class proof of claim, courts consider whether: (i) a class was certified pre-petition by a non-bankruptcy court; (ii) there has been no actual or constructive notice to the class members of the bankruptcy case and/or the bar date; and (iii) class certification will adversely affect the administration of the case (collectively, the “Musicland Factors”). No class was certified pre-petition by a non-bankruptcy court, the account holders had notice of the bar dates pursuant to notices approved by the Bankruptcy Court, and the numerous class-based claims, at this late stage, would interfere with the bankruptcy administration. Did the Bankruptcy Court abuse its discretion in permitting a class proof of claim, although the Musicland Factors weighed against permitting the class claim?
- 3) In conducting an analysis of whether to permit the filing of a class proof of claim, a court must also determine whether the proposed class proof of claim can and does satisfy the class certification requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 (“Rule 23”). The Committee’s Motion, however, failed to describe the scope of the class, the proposed class claims to be asserted, the Debtors against which the class claims would be asserted, or how all 600,000 account holder creditors, located worldwide, who had deposited assets at various points in time, were likely to have common issues of law and fact to predominate any claim asserted on behalf of a class. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in permitting the Committee to file a class proof of claim without requiring the Committee to submit a proposed class claim or otherwise articulate the scope of the proposed class proof of claim and where the claim cannot satisfy the Rule 23 requirements?

Certificate Regarding Transcripts

The transcripts of the oral arguments before the Bankruptcy Court are included in the above designations of the appeal record. Therefore, pursuant to Rule 8009(b)(1)(B) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, Appellants hereby file this certificate stating that it is not ordering any transcripts.
